Correspondence in verse which passed last Bummer between Austin Dobson and E. C. Stedman will be printed in the March Scribner, and the same number of this magazine will contain four of the last productions of the late Irwin Russell.

Mr. Sidney Lanier will soon publish through Charles Scribner's Sons an original treatise on "The Science of English Verse," which is designed not only for general readers, but for use also as a text-book to combat certain errors in the prosody taught by the higher schools and colleges.

A new and cheaper edition of the complete works of Hallam has been prepared by A. C. Armstroog & Son, the ten volumes of the former edition being condensed into six. Two volumes are given to each of Hallam's three works—the "Constitutional History England," the "Middle Ages," and the "Literature

It is believed that The Presbyterian Keview will more than satisfactorily fill the place for which it was intended -- to give the American Presbyterian was intended - to give in American in periodical litera-ture. Although the first number only has thus far been issued, A. D. F. Randolph & Co report that enough sub-scribers have already been obtained to make it pay its way. A feature of it will be book reviews, of which it is intended that there shall be many.

Bishop Huntington, of Central New-York, has written an interesting preface for a new and third edition of the "Memorials of Catharine and Crawford Tait," which has already bad a large sale in this country, both in the expensive and in the cheaper edition The interest of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this nemoir has far exceeded expectations, and the edition with Bishop Huntington's preface has been prepared with particular reference to the interest of such readers.

Bangs & Co. are selling this week a large ot of old standard English books, which were receiv direct from a London dealer, many of them eighteenth century editions of contemporary authors. English dealers seem to have been much encouraged by former success in marketing stock of this kind here. Consignments are frequently received by Bangs & Co., and second-hand dealers are eager purchasers at the sales. The present lot comprises nearly 1,200 titles. The sale today is the third and list.

Mr. Welford, in his letter to the current Bookbuyer, says of the Marquess of Bute's recently published translation of "The Roman Breviary." being the first translation of it yet made out of Latin into English, that every line-of it has been written by the hand of the Marquess himself, who has been engaged on the work for ten years. Some notion of the magnitude of the work may be gained from the fact that it comprises over 3,000 closely printed pages in double column—as much matter as would fill twenty ordinary volumes.

The leading article in the March Scribner will be "The Tile Club Afloat," being a lively narrative of the famous voyage of the New-York Tile Club to Lake Champlain last Summer in a canal-boat. The article thirty-nine illustrations, and among the twelve ar tists who contributed to it are Mr. Reinhart, J. A. Weir, E. A. Abbey, R. Swain Gifford, W. M. Chase, W. R. O'Donovan, and N. Sarony. Membership in the Tile Club is limited to something under twenty. Vacancies occur when a member goes to Europe. Two such now exist-but there will be no trouble in filling them; the trouble will be to get in.

R. Worthington has recently purchased from a New-York publishing house a large quantity of its retail stock, which will and considerably to his former former business. From being herotofore so largely composed of choice English publications, his stock by this means will have a more pronounced American feature. At the same time, many of the new books are English. There is, for instance, a superb copy of the Halliwell Shakespeare, bound by Matthews in red Levant morocco, and his window presents the novel feature of this, the largest edition of Shakespeare, side by side with the Pickering 64mos, which form, und-oubt-edly, the smallest ever issued. Mr. W. H. Pars, who has been widely known-to the book business of New-York for many years, will go into Mr. Worthington's estab-lishment.

In the new volume of Seniors "Conversations," Madame Carnu, wife of the artist, and daughter of a friend of Queen Hortense, and who was brought up is a sister with Louis Napoleon, is introduced as saying of Louis Napoleon that when he was in Germany in his youth, the Germans looked down on him and would scarcely admit that he belonged to the gentry, cailing him Monsieur Bonaparte, and seeing nobody but his mother and her suite. She thinks it wonderful that his ig exclusion from the society of the higher classes did not spoil his manners. He had a fondness, she says, for mere titles, and she relates that one day she told him of proposal from a German court to make her a dame Proposal from a Griman control of the proposal from a Griman for the proposal from the proposal for the prop tificial nobinty.

THE SIFTING OF PETER.

A FOLK SONG. In St. Luke's Gospel we are told

How Peter in the days of old
Was sifted;
And now, though ages intervene.
Sin is the same, while time and scene
Are shifted.

Satan desires us, great and small, As wheat, to sift us, and we all Are tempted: Not one, however rich or great, Is by his station or estate Exempted.

No house so safely guarded is But he, by some device of his, Can enter; No heart hath armor so complete But he can pierce with arrows fleet Its centre.

For all at last the cock will crow Who lear the warning voice, but go Unheeding. Till thrice and more they have denied The Man of Sorrows, crucified And bleeding.

One look of that pale, suffering face Will make us feel the deep disgrace of weakness; We shall be sitted till the strength Of self-concett be changed at length To meckness.

Wounds of the soul, though healed, will ache;
The reddening scars remain, and make Confession;
Lost innocence returns no more;
We are not what we were before

But noble souls, through dust and heat, Rise from disaster and defeat The stronger, And conscious still of the divine Within them, he on earth supine

. N. T. MINING STOCK EXCHANGE SALES. SECOND CALL-12:30 P. M.

| Color of the col

but the market presented the samogeneral features. While most of the specialties were strong and higher, a majority of the usually active speculative stocks either were weak or hardly maintained their prices. Among the specialties Louisville and Nashbasiness than was done in it yesterday. But Louisville, New-Albany and Chicago, with sales of only 167 shares, was 612 per cent higher at 8219, and 85 afterward was bid. Houston and Texas also advanced 6 per cent to 85, but later sold at 83. The movement in Ohio and Mississippi was continued, the common stock selling up to 36% 235% and the preferred to 82@80, and Chicago, 8t. Paul and Minneapolis advanced from 54% to 58@57. The general speculators seem to be alarmed at these special and violent movements, and to fear that some serious reaction in them will affect the entire hence there is little disposition to make large contracts for the future. There were im provements of 1 per cent or more made for St. Paul and Stoax City common and preferred stocks, Alton and Terre Haute, New-York, Ontario and Western, and Peoria, Decatur and Evansville while Ohio Central maintained its advance of yesterday. But the older stocks show more losses than gains, and the gains are only of small fractions Western Union was unusually active, 31,500 shares selling from 1061s to 100@10812; Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph remaining steady at about the advanced figures of yesterday. These movements-that in Atlantic and Pacific yeterday and in Western Union to-day-are explained by the expressed expectation among operators that there will be paid an extra dividend on each stock for the current quarter to end March 31. Pacific Mail also was active, and rose from 4112 to 44 and closed at 4358. For this movement no explanation is offered; the report published in some of the papers to the effect that a new contract railroad had been made being positively denied in official quarters. The market closed irregular, with operators puzzled as to what to do. The final changes from the closing prices yesterday are as follows: Advances-Hannibal and St. Joseph preferred and Union Pacific, each 18: Morris and Essex, Wabash common and preferred, and Wells, Fargo & Co., each 4; Lake Shore, 38; Central Pacific, Chicago and Alton, Marietta and Cincinnati second preferred, Metropolitan Elevated, American Express, and Canton, each 12; Ohio and Mississippi, 58; International and Great Northern, 34; Alten and Terre Haute, Peoria, Decatur and Evansville, and St. Paul and Sioux City common and preferred, each 1; Illinois Central, 1<sup>1</sup>8; American District Telegraph, 114; Ohio and Mississippi preferred, 138; Montauk Gas Coal, 112; New-York, Ontario and Western, 158; Western Union, 178; Chicago, St. Paul add Minneapolis, 24; Pacific Mail, 28; Houston and Texas, 4; and Louisville, New-Albany and Chicago, 612 per cent. Declines-C., C. and I. C. St. Paul, and Northern Pacific, each <sup>1</sup>s; Northwest pre-ferred, St. Paul preferred, Central and Hudson, Eric, and Reading, each 4; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and Northern Pacific preferred, each 38; Hannibal and St. Joseph, Manhattan, New-York Elevated, Erie preferred, and
